"THE ISLAND OF REGENERATION"

A POWERFUL STORY OF THE SOUTH SEAS!

How would a child of six, study and strong of constitution, but absolutely alone on a uncharted island, manage to exist and what would become of him?

Can one live the life of a semisavage from childhood, seeing no human face in twenty-one years, and then become a man of intellect and refinement?

What will impel a man in love with a woman to send another man to find her and to take her into his life?

Can a woman discover her own soul in awakening that of a seeming savage who has forgotten the sound of human speech?

Can a woman of refinement love a man she has found living in a savage state, ignorant even of human speech?

What sort of a woman would elect to remain by herself on a lonely island rather than return to the world under a cloud of suspicion?

MESSRS. K. D. AND BROTHERS

offer

A FILM POETIC

"The Snow in the Desert"

(5 Reels—6,000 feet.) Featuring

VIOLET HOPSON

and

STEWART ROME.

Messrs. K.D. and Brothers arepresenting this week a charming screen story of the social life of to-day. It is an all-British Broadwest. Production and is enacted by well known British stars, including the winsome Violet Hopson and the emotional Stewart Rome. The photoplay is entided the "Snow in the Desert." William B. Jackson is a hard materialist and believes in nothing that does not spell "Rupees, Annas and Pies!' He is the "Lion Tamer," aptly so-called as the strongest heads on the Stock Exchange wince at his knitted eyebrows. Jackson is incapable of understanding the soul of a woman. In fact he thinks a woman cannot have a soul—need not have one. She is, according to him, just that species of a six-and-a half per cent. security or a limited company share that could be purchased as an investment either at premium, par or discount! But at last he meets a girl "worth fighting for." In 3 minutes he makes up his mind to go in for the "transaction." He does so and—well, it is unique stroke of business, somehow, turns out successful!

"THE LOST CITY".

(FURTHER 3 EPISODES—6,000 FEET.)

The Globe Cinema, (Sandhurst Road), are commencing the third week of their Mighty Animal Serial "The Lost City" which appears to have greatly impressed the Bombay Cinema public with its great and unique originality. The past two weeks the Globe Cinema has been keeping very busy, indeed. Juanith Hansen, together with Richard Cheesbro, carries the spectators away with her, when she encounters nerve-tingling dangers with real genuine beasts of the jungle. As princess of "The Lost City" she is fleeing from her persecuting enemies, and when she just escapes from the frying-pan she invariably finds herself in the fire. The serial enters its third week but the incidents narrated are so lucidly and independently arranged, that the story is easily followed even at this stage.

BOMBAY RACING SEASON.

NINTH EXTRA MEETING.

QUARRYMAN WINS THE DON CASTER PLATE.

(From our Correspondent.)

There was not a very large attendance at the races yesterday, when the ninth extra meeting of the Bombay racing season was held. The weather was pleasant and an enjoyable afternoon was spent, as the sport was interesting and exciting. A programme of eight events was gone through. The two divisions of the Bellasis Plate for Arabs in the 3rd Division, distance 7 furlongs, were the two first races of the day. In the first race Karam, the favourite, dead-heated with Last Day, the second favourite; in the second race Beadmaker, the favourite, won from Magdala.

The third event on the card was the Selling Handicap for horses in the 3rd Division. This race was run on the 5 furlong straight course. Walhachin was elected first favourite and Isbury Rose second favourite. Few gave a chance to Renette who has been running unplaced several times this season. She won as she liked yesterday while the favourite only managed to secure third place.

The 3rd Division of the Bellasis Plate was the fourth event on the programme. In this race Sammy was backed heavily, as was also Arvil and Honey Suckle. Sammy could not stay the distance and Arvil won handsomely from Palerace. Imkin, a rank outsider, secured third place, a dividend of Rs. 200 was returned for this place. The public again got a good shaking on Sammy. Probably he will be left alone next time he starts.

A field of ten started in the Rockhampton Plate of 10 furlongs for horses in the 3rd Division. The public was at sea here. Millmount, Laodicea, Midton, Footman and White Bell attracted most attention. Jacky Firth managed to get a good start in this race and cracked the pace like a meteor for a good while, but was overtaken at the turn where the field closed on him. Here Midton was done with and Beggar Prince and Millmount began to fight the issue. When White Bell challenged them before the stands he simply walked home in a canter while the others were galloping for all they were worth. With one stone more White Bell would have smashed his field and yet he was out with 7 stones even after his performances in Calcutta very recently.

The most important event of the day was the Doncaster Plate of 6 furlongs for horses in the 1st and 2nd Divisions. In this race Belvedere declined and also Trostan leaving six contestants to fight the issue. We understand that Bevedere declined in this race and also in the next race, the Ayrshire Plate, as he was too severely handicapped in both races. There is no doubt that in the Doncaster plate this horse, who has been recently promoted to the 2nd Division, received a stone more than what would have been considered a fair handicap for him. After all, what performances has he done to merit such a flattering compliment from the handicapper? In England he only won a 7-8 race and in Poona he won a 5 furlong race in the 3rd Division. The fate of Owen Roe, also a 2nd Division horse, in this Plate shows that it was not only a folly to enter Belvedere in the Doncaster Plate against Poignant, Verge and Quarryman, but an absurdity to handicap him at 8 stone. The same may be said about Owen Roe. When it becomes a question of class it is preposterous to expect wonders from animals of an inferior class. In this race the public, as usual, went blind on Mr. Gahagan's horse. His failure caused many to become sadder, but perhaps wiser people.

Why was Trostan more leniently treated than Belvedere in the Ayrshire Plate, is a question that may be left to the handicapper to answer Trostan has certainly a better record to his credit than Belvedere or Viola. Crushed Glass also was never given a decent chance with 8-13 on his back. Belle Syme though handsomely treated could only secure third place and Anthracite failed to be in the picture.

Shahzada, who has been frequently knocking at the door this season, at last succeeded in getting through, though he had a tight fight with Dunbar Andolis and Mentor ran disappointingly. They were heavily backed.

The police would do well to regulate the traffic in a proper manner from the level crossing to Jacob Circle after the races. Before the races this is well done; but after the races it is disgraceful to see the manner that the hack victoria drivers drive on that part of the road. As many as four abreast go together endangering the life of people in a manner that is simply shocking. These brutes ought to be severely taken to task for disregarding the rules of the road in such a contemptible manner.

It is rumoured that T. White, the Colombo trainer, is very much disheartened at the manner, his horses have been treated in Bombay by the handicapper. It appears he feels that he has needlessly undertaken all the troubles of coming down from Colombo and then not getting a decent chance in Bombay. Glass Bead, Elyra and Midton, Colombo performers with light weight, have certainly not been leniently treated here. It is to be hoped that this will not discourage Colombo owners from coming down here in future.

Some people in England when they acclaimed the latest turf reforms, described racing as a national institution. It would not be inappropriate to refer to racing in India in similar terms. The Indian public have entered the spirit of racing with a zest typical of the west. Hitherto racing was mainly confined to Calcutta and Bombay with a few meetings at Ambalia, Meerut, Lucknow and Rawalpindi, where the military element predominated. The war gave a great stimulus to racing in India, Karachi has also established a racing centre now; the eastern Presidency had lagged far behind us in this respect, but thanks to the efforts of their Excellencies Lord and Lady Willingdon, Madras can now boast of a modern race course with the latest innovation the "Pari Mutuel." The clamour for reforms has been imperative in France and England, the wave is now passing round the globe, Australia is setting things in order, and yet in no part of the world is a change more necessary than in Bombay. There are questions that have been asked over and over again, but matters are practically at a standstill for nobody cares, and we are content to crawl along the time beaten track deluded by the belief that Bombay is urbs prima in Indis.

The following English horses arrived in Bombay for different owners, per s. s. Circassia:—

Black Water, a brown colt by Black Jester—Waterweed.

Meg Merrilies, a brown filly by Lomond—Wild Witch.

Chammy, a brown colt by Simon Square—Little Black.

Merry Lips, colt by Feather Bed.

Bell Metal, a brown 2-year-old colt, by Llangibby—Tinkling Sound.

On board the s. s. Elysia came Marmion, a chestnut colt by Lomond—Fair Offender.

Sweet Adare, a chestnut filly by Lomond—Semi Girl.

Carborundum, a 2-year-old colt by Sunbright—Carbide.

Archlight, a 2-year-old colt by Winstonley—Torchlight.

Heart Free, a 2-year-old gelding by St. Amant—Invicta.

ADELAIDE, Jan. 17.
Recd. 12 noon, Jan. 19.

The wicket was in perfect condition when Woolley 73 and Russell 21 resumed batting for the M. C. C. to-day before 15,000 spectators, Kelleway and Gregory shared the attack. When 77 Woolley was struck on the side by a rising ball from Gregory and fell to the ground in pain. He quickly resumed again and was loudly cheered by the crowd but he was still obviously in pain and after adding two runs to his score he was out to a catch by Kelleway. He had batted in an elegant fashion for 124 minutes and hit nine fours and one six (250-5-79). Mailey whose injury to the hand was not serious relieved Kelleway and Russell promptly lifted him to longon for six. The New South Wales googly bowler however was obviously worrying Douglas who had succeeded Woolley Russell reached his fifty in 104 minutes. When 52 he gave a chance of being run out. The three hundred was signalled after play had been in progress for 278 minutes and lunch was taken with the score 321 for five wickets Russell being 70 and Douglas 29.

Both batsmen resumed steadily. Russell was cheered when he topped Woolley's score with a nice straight drive off armstrong to the boundary. The spectators at this time were on the tip-toe of excitement and watched every move in the game with unflagging interest. After 325 minutes' play Australia's score was reached and at 374 Douglas was given out leg-before, to Mailey. Once again he showed his dissatisfaction with the umpire's decision. His innings, which included two lives one at 15 to Gregory off Armstrong and one at 30 by Armstrong off Gregory, occupied 113 minutes and included seven fours. Fender Strudwick and Parkin did not remain long but Russell continued to play excellent cricket. A humorous element was introduced into the game by Parkin's comedian-like pretence of running impossibilities. When the tea interval came the score was 437 for nine wickets, Russell being 131. Armstrong desired to continue until England was out before adjournment but Douglas called in Russel who was awaiting the appearance of the last man, Howell. Nine minutes after resumption Howell was dismissed and the innings closed for 448 having occupied 398 minu Russell gave a great display of dogged cricket. He was at the wicket 250 minutes and his innings included twelve fours.

AUSTRALIA'S SECOND INNINGS.

The Australians opened their second venture with Bardsley and Collins facing the bowling of Douglas and Howell. With 34 runs on the board Bardsley was beaten by a beautiful ball from Howell. The crowd was intensely disappointed at his dismissal as also with that of Collins and Ryder. Stamps were drawn for the day with the Australian score 71 for three wickets.

There were sixteen thousand spectators present when Armstrong and Kelleway reopened for the Australians to the bowling of Howell and Parkin. Armstrong immediately got busy and was especially cheered for a lightning shot to the leg boundary off Parkin, Hendren falling in his attempt to field it. England's lead was passed after 86 minutes' play. Armstrong was scoring quickly his first 34 occupying fifty minutes as compared with Kelleway's 34 in two hours. At lunch the pair remained unseparated, each having scored 51 runs and the score being 158 for 3 wickets.

On resuming the batsmen continued to score steadily the 200 appealing after 198 minutes play. Douglas used all the resources at his disposal but without success and the tea interval came with the score 242 for three wickets Armstrong being 105 and Kelleway 75. Armstrong had completed his century in 173 minutes.

After tea a separation was at length effected Howell piercing Armstrongs defence. (265—4—121). The retiring batsman had batted brilliantly for 204 minutes his driving on both sides of the wicket being delightful. He hit eleven fours. Taylor, the new-comer, gave a charming and dashing display for 58 minutes before being caught at the wicket. 328—5—38.)

Fellow immediately became aggressive and when stumps were drawn for the day the score stood at 364 for five wikets, Kelleway being 115 not out. He took 103 minutes to complete his century but his innings though tedious has been invaluable to his side.

Up to the present Howell has taken three wickets for 60 Douglas nought for 48, Wolley nought for 57 Parkin 1 for 74 Fender 1 for 60 and Rhodes nought for 44.

APPEAL TO GOVT, AMEND MUNICIPAL ACT,

The following letter has been addressed to Government by Mr. Sunderrao D. Navalkar, Hon. Secretary, Municipal Reform Association, Bombay:—

Sir,—In continuation of my letter No. 40 of 1919-20 dated 19 21 July 1919, I have the honour to state that Government will be pleased to expedite the amendment of the Bombay municipal Act for the enfranchisement of larger number of people including tenants, etc., so as to make the Municipal Corporation a really democratic body the representative assembly of the people, and to direct that the new Corporation should be formed at the next triennal election in January 1922; by giving effect to the said amendment.—Yours, etc.,

KILLED BY MOTOR-CYCLE,

The Coroner held an inquest on the body of a Hindu, Devji Sajnu, aged 50 years, who was knocked down by motor-cycle No. 8144 owned and driven by W. A. Stevens, on Queen's Road on the night of the 13th instant. It was stated that Mr. Stevens blew his horn and swerved to the right, but the deceased came in front and he was knocked down. The cycle was travelling at a speed of about 20 miles per hour. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

FOUND DEAD WITH STAB WOUND

The Coroner held an inquest touching the death of Bhikia Rama, aged about 25, who was found with a stab wound on Parel Road on Tuesday. His clothes were blood-stained and he had a wound on the right side of the chest near the collar bone. The Police Surgeon deposed that a lung had been penetrated to a depth of two inches. The cause of death was hemmorrhage.

Further enquiry was adjourned.

A BOY MISSING.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

Thursday, 20th January 1921.

WHEN SHALL WE AWAKE?

According to the Reuter's cable which we published on Tuesday, the Sunday papers regarded Mr. Churchill as almost certain to go to the Colonial Office, to which a new Middle Eastern Department, including Egypt, Palestine and Mesopotamia, was likely to be attached. According to the "Times", the decision to transfer the Middle-Eastern mandated territories to the Colonial Office has been taken by the Cabinet by a very narrow majority. However that may be, few greater calamities can befall the world than the appointment of Mr. Churchill not only as Colonial Secretary but also as the minister in charge of the new Middle Eastern Department. The transfer of Mr. Churchill from the War Office to the reconstructed Colonial Office will be a characteristic stroke of Lloyd-Georgian "statesmanship". The War Secretary's mad adventures have proved too costly for the British taxpayers, even if his policy and actions have not made him the most hated of War Secretaries; and, to appease the new cry of economy, Mr. Lloyd George never at a loss to discover some means of meeting popular wishes, is not likely to think of any better arrangement than that which the Sunday papers have forecasted. He will seek to satisfy the popular discontent with the gigantic waste of public money, involved in the undertakings of the War Office, by a seeming sacrifice of his colleague—a sacrifice that will mean, in reality, no change in policy. For, Mr. Churchill will still be there to continue his career of creating strife in the war-weary world and adding to the financial burdens of his country.

God, a brilliant writer once said, made the Churchills long ago to do themselves well out of old England—her wars, dynasties, politics, and the incidental fits of suicidal mania to which she is subject. And Mr. Churchill has remained true to the family tradition. No single individual, in fact, has done greater harm to the world during the years since the Armistice was signed than has Mr. Churchill. And Mr. H. G. Wells did not exaggerate when in a recent article he denounced him in the following scathing terms:—

> "What a spectacle of utter bankruptcy, moral and intellectual, does Mr. Churchill display! What a prospect he opens before us, of the more and more ragged levies of bankrupt Europe wasting themselves in the desolations of the East! War, and War, and more War, until the schools are ruined and empty, the factories idle, the towns half desert. But we shall still be saving one precious thing—Freedom, Mr. Churchill's freedom, that is to say, to try one more gamble."

But so long as Mr. Lloyd George remains in power, so long as the subservient Parliament lasts, and so long as the British people do not bestir themselves and realise how odious the name of their country is being made in every part of the world where men love peace and freedom, by the criminal policies of Ministers like the Churchills and the Curzons—Mr. Churchill will survive attacks like these as he has survived his own blunders, as he has survived Koltchak and Denikin, Gallipoli and Antwerp. While there are British soldiers and British money, Indian soldiers and Indian money, to squander in "rescuing Poles from Bolsheviks, Greeks from Turks, and Arabs from each other, militarist Churchill will always be there to do it. Having "Balkanised Europe," he will now be freer than before to spread anarchy and ruin in Asia. It is not surprising that the "Westminster Gazette" should think that Mr. Churchill's domination of the tremendous field of expenditure represented by the Middle East is most disquieting in view of his financial record, and that the "Daily Mirror" should denounce what it describes as pleas for another huge department to throw away more millions.

However, Mr. Churchill's domination of the Middle Eastern policies is not a matter of concern merely to the British taxpayer. It is a peril to India the magnitude of which it is not difficult to realise. On Saturday we drew attention to the new menace to our rights and liberties, as a nation, involved in the new orientation of Dominion status which gives to the Dominions complete equality of status in respect of the whole field of government, legislative, executive and judicial and which, in effect, means that henceforth non-white portions of the Empire like India will be governed not merely by the British Parliament but also by the Dominions whose voice will, moreover, be numerically predominant and that India will continue to remain a useful pawn in the game of economic imperialism, her resources in men and money being placed at the disposal of the "white" sections of the Empire for their aggrandisement. The advent of Mr. Churchill—whose love of militarist adventures is well-known and between whose mind and that of the old German Empire there are great affinities—as Colonial Secretary and as the director of the Middle East policy, brings the menace into prominent relief. It is time, therefore, that India bestirred herself. There are differences that divide us. But there is not one amongst us whose blood does not boil at contemplating the sacrifice of our soldiers and money for the unholy ends of trampling upon the freedom of struggling nations and securing oil for Britain—"adding to the glories of our Empire" as Mr. Lloyd George would say—of the crushing military burdens and the insulting and humiliating refusal to allow us to organise a truly national scheme of defence. If we are not up betimes and do not demand and secure complete equality of status with the Dominions in respect our foreign as well as internal affairs we shall soon find our resources and the resources of the generation to come mortgaged for the carrying out of "imperial" undertakings—a process of emasculation and exploitation that will continue to mock our helplessness despite a hundred doses of Montagu reforms. For let there be no mistake about it. If we did not fully realize the fact before, the war should have brought it home to us that without control over its military expenditure and its foreign policy, the freedom—freedom to exploit its resources for its own good—of a nation is a delusion and a snare. How long, then, are we going to nourish this delusion? We trust, in view of the great danger threatening us, immediate efforts will be made to bring together patriotic men of all shades of opinion in a conference to devise some effective and practical means of averting it.

Notes of the Day.

Britain and Turkey.

That we were not wrong in surmising that the opening of the Greek offensive against the Turkish Nationalists probably indicated the break-down of the negotiations between the Constantinople and the Kemalist Governments, is seen from the reports appearing in the British press that the Turkish Mission headed by Izzet Pasha, ex-Vizier and Minister of the Interior, which had proceeded to Angora to conduct the negotiations, has gone over to the Kemalists. The news, according to the correspondent of the "Morning Post," is contained in an official communique published under date December 10th by the Kemalist Government agency in the Angora paper, "Hakimiet Millet". The communique runs:

Our enemies continue to employ every means to wipe out the Turkish nation and Turkey. The delegation which has arrived here is composed of patriots, who were exposed till now to British oppression and tyranny, and could not cross to the sacred soil of Anatolia. They have used the pretext of coming to negotiate with the Angora Government and have left Constantinople to co-operate with us for the happiness and prosperity of our country. They state officially that they have joined in the Anatolian movement.

The same paper reports Izzet as saying; "We have come to defend with our people the sacred cause of the nation, and to fight against our common enemies. We wanted to leave sooner but were unable." It is thus plain that Entente diplomacy has received a further check in the Near East and Mr. Lloyd George cannot any longer ask his friends to hold their souls in patience till the outcome of the negotiations becomes evident. Public opinion in France and Italy is clamouring for a revision of the Treaty of Sevres and is not at all anxious to see the Greeks benefited at the cost of the Turks. It is only in Cabinet circles in Great Britain that we find a determination to enforce the Treaty, a fact which no doubt gladdens the heart of "Tino" and his advisers. According to the Athens correspondent of "The Times," Mr. Lloyd George's declaration as to the impossibility of depriving Greece of Smyrna is hailed there with universal satisfaction by Greeks of all parties. "The Government's delight is unbounded, and it declares that the British Prime Minister's declaration is due directly to his admiration for, and sympathy with, its policy." Does Greek gratitude outweigh the humiliation of seven crores of Indian Muslim subject of the Empire—apart, of course from consideration of justice and righteousness? Apparently it does.

Heroi Attempts.

Evidently an eleventh hour attempt is being made to induce the Shah of Persia to appoint as his Ministers a few "strong" men, who will be able to over-ride all opposition, including that from the masses, and carry out whatever they are told to do. Reuter has not yet made clear to us what exactly is the position at present of the notables, the ex-ministers, etc., who have entered into negotiations with the Bolsheviks and whether the old Ministry, which has resigned, has had anything to do with these, negotiations. Apparently it had something to do with, or was sympathetically inclined towards, the attempt. Whether the Shah will succeed in picking out really influential men who will be able to tide over the threatening crisis remains to be seen. In any case any attempt to get the Anglo-Persian Agreement ratified by the Mejlis by heroic means at this juncture can only render the situation worse.

Ajmer-Merwara.

Looking to the personnel of the Committee appointed by the Government of India and the attitude of officialdom as indicated in the speech of the Agent to the Governor-General, Rajputana, on New Year's Day, we are not surprised to learn that the public of Ajmer-Merwara have resolved to boycott the Committee appointed to enquire into the administrative and judicial changes that may be required to bring the Province in a line with the rest of the country. Ajmer-Merwara has long remained a Cinderella among the Indian provinces and it has been left out of count even in the new reforms scheme. The joint report of Mr. Montagu and the Viceroy had recommended that, in the case of small provinces like Ajmer-Merwara, "it would be well to associate with the personal administration of the Chief Commissioner some form of Advisory Council adjusted in composition and functions to local conditions in each case." Though an "Advisory Council" was not at all what the people of Ajmer-Merwara had been demanding, even this has not been established. The Government of India have now appointed a Committee of two officials, Col. Patterson, Commissioner, and Mr. Ashworth, a judicial officer from the United Provinces ignoring altogether the need of popular representation on the Committee. The anomalous position of Ajmer-Merwara can be realised from the fact that the co-operative movement in the province is supervised by the Punjab and the forests by the United Provinces officials. In educational matters the province is amalgamated with Delhi. That a Committee entrusted with the task of investigating the requirements and grievances of the people in respect of anomalies like these should be composed wholly of officials is eloquent of the regard which the Government of India have for public opinion in the province. A further indication of official "solicitude" for the welfare of "the masses" was furnished by the Agent to the Governor-General in his New Year's Day speech in which he announced the Government of India's decision. He availed himself of the occasion to indulge in a characteric denunciation of the agitators of the day. It is no wonder that the public of Ajmer should have decided to boycott the Committee and let the officials stew in their own juice.

A Stock Exchange Scandal.

The speculation in the Fazulbhoy Mill shares has at last closed, at least for the time being. The Directors of the old Stock Exchange have resolved that there was a corner and have fixed an arbitrary rate to settle the outstanding transactions. The market, it appears, was over-sold to a small group of determined Bull operators, who had thus the Bears at their mercy. To believe all the rumours which found currency, during the excited state of the market it appeared at one time not unlikely that the determined group of operators would take the price up to any figure they liked, absolutely independent of the intrinsic value of the shares concerned. Moderate counsel has, however, prevailed for the moment and they have agreed to Rs. 2,155 as the price for the present settlement. The Bulls must take delivery at their contract rates, and such of the Bears as have sold, never intending to give delivery, must practically repurchase their own safes at the present agreed price benefiting the Bull operators by the differences. All this is unmitigated, indefensible unhealthy speculation. And it is all the more regrettable as it is in respect of an industry which ought not to be the object of such speculation and especially, as it is in connection with names, which, one would have thought, were above the temptation of such illicit gains. Cloak them how you will, this profit is essentially a wagering gain, representing no real material increment, no genuine addition to wealth of the country. It is easy to suggest legal reforms, but it is easier still to devise expedients to evade the law.

The Remedy.

Until the commonsense of the community is educated to the point that the earning of such profits is looked upon in the same light as theft no reliance could be placed upon such means as compulsory registration under some form of corporate supervision. The authorities of the Share Bazaar ought to be able to say at any moment, under a system of compulsory registration of all transactions, on pain of being declared illegal, at what moment the market becomes oversold or overbought. And, if they are vested with powers to apply the brake at such a moment—always presuming, of course, that the managers of such a corporation are not guided by their own interests,—there would be some chance of restricting such unjustifiable operations. The Stock Exchange of Bombay have, in the last four years, more than once acted in such instances with the precipitation suggestive of a panic and have thus exposed themselves to just criticism if not bitter recriminations. It is impossible all at once to create a machinery, the operation of which in such cases would be absolutely beyond cavil. But if the community would realise the utter futility of such wagers, if the persons prominent in such ventures would understand the harm they do to the investing public, and thereby to the entire industry of the country, there need be no insuperable difficulty in establishing a sufficiently workable machinery to neutralise, if not totally to eliminate, such scandals. And if the State is in need of extra funds and the financiers are at once bold enough to assert their displeasure towards such unhealthy speculation, and to exercise their powers to punish its authors, there might be a not insignificant source of revenue in such operations. Taxation is at best a poor means of preventing an evil; but it can at least make a luxury costly and difficult, if not impossible or unattainable.

INDIAN RAILWAYS.

COMPANY OR STATE MANAGEMENT.

I.

We publish below the first of a series of articles on the Railway Question in India, which will be read with interest in view of the enquiry that is being conducted by the Acworth Commission :—

The railway question in India is one of the most important of our economic and financial problems, and on its right solution depends, to a considerable extent, the material development of this country. The total capital outlay on State-owned railways—almost the entire trunk system is State property—amounts to over £380 millions. The total mileage exceeds 36,000, of which nearly 31,000 miles are of standard gauge (5 ft. 6 in), and 15,000 miles are of metre gauge (3 ft. 3 3/8 in). The State was about 29,000 miles of railway, of which 10,900 miles are operated by direct State agency, the rest being worked by companies under contracts. If the seven thousand miles of non-state railways, 4,000 miles are worked by branch line companies; the rest being native state lines.

Magnitude of the Problem.

In the year 1917-18, the total number of passengers carried by Indian railways was 409 million, and the total quantity of goods carried exceeded 85 million tons. The Indian railway system employs about 600,000 persons of whom Europeans number a little under 7,000, and Anglo-Indians over 10,000, the rest being Indians. There are nearly 9,000 locomotives, 24,000 passenger vehicles, and 190,000 freight cars. These figures are sufficient to impress upon the reader the magnitude of the railway quarters.

The Acworth Commission and examination in Camera.

Railway matters are now being inquired into by a Commission that is sitting at Calcutta. The chairman is Mr. W. M. Acworth. Including the chairman, there are six European members, while the Indian elements consists of only three members. This cannot be regarded as satisfactory. It is stated that, after taking evidence at the principal centres in India, the Commission will proceed to England for the completion of its work. There is no reason why it should not write its report here. Another objectionable feature of the working of this Commission is the secret proceedings. When the Mining Engineer of the Railway Board gave evidence the other day before the Commission at Calcutta, most of the examination was held in camera. This method of inquiry is highly objectionable and should be strongly condemned.

Terms of Reference.

The scope of the enquiry is indicated by the interrogations issued to witnesses who are expected to deal with the following topics:—

(1) Whether the present system of management of some State railways by direct State agency and others by companies on a profit sharing basis, should be continued or not:—

(2) In case of company management, whether control by companies domiciled in India or the United Kingdom is better.

(3) In case of operation by companies in India, the constitution of the Directorate.

(4) As regards the Railway Board, whether its composition and working are satisfactory or whether its powers require any modification.

5. Whether the present policy of rates and fares gives satisfaction or needs change; and how Government control is exercised.

(6). Whether the present method of providing funds requires modification.

(7) Whether the carrying capacity of the railways is sufficient to meet present requirements or needs enlargement.

Existing System.

Before proceeding to discuss the topics forming the subject of enquiry as well as some others not mentioned such as the question of the gauges etc., it is necessary to grasp the salient features of railway policy, finance, administration, working, and control.

The Indian Railway system consists of the following main lines (1) The North-Western Railway (N. W. Ry.) (2) The Oudh and Rohilkund Railway (O. and R. Ry.) (3) The Eastern Bengal Railway. —— (4) The East Indian Railway (E. I. Ry.) (5) Bengal Nagpur Railway (B. N. Ry.) (6) Assam-Bengal Railway (A. B. Ry.) 7. Bengal and North-Western Railway (B. and N.W. Ry.) 8. Burma Railway. 9. Madras and Southern Mharatta Railway (M. and S. M. Ry.) 10. South Indian Railway. (S. I. Ry.) 11. Great Indian Peninsula Railway (G. I. P. Ry.) and 12. Bombay Baroda and Central India Railway (B. B. and C. I. Ry.) Of these the B. and N. W. Ry. is the only private owned railway. The N. W. Ry., the O. and R. Ry., and the E. B. Ry. are the three State railways directly worked by Government agency. All the other eight state lines are managed by companies

SITUATION IN PERSIA.

ANGLO-PERSIAN AGREEMENT NOT RATIFIED.

WHAT AGREEMENT WITH SOVIET MEANS.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 1-30 p.m. Jan. 19.

Reuter learns that the situation in Persia is precarious, the Persians having failed to ratify the Anglo-Persian agreement which would have enabled her to straighten out her affairs. The Persians think that the best alternative is an agreement with Soviet Russia. The agreement, which is not yet signed, practically hands over Persia to the Soviet which has the right usder it to invade Persia whenever it is pleased to regard the country as threatened. The Persians realise that they are not gettings anything out of the Soviet but owing to apprehensions for the future they want to keep on good terms with Moscow.

British evacuation of North Persia will begin in the near future but there cannot be any question of allowing Bolshevist interference in South Persia owing to the proximity of the British territory.

SHAH NOT ABDICATING.

FORMING NEW CABINET FOR NATIONAL DEFENCE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 1 p.m., Jan. 19.

It is officially stated that the Shah is not abdicating but that on the contrary he is forming a new strong cabinet for the purpose of national defence.

REPORTED ABDICATION OF SHAH.

NOT CONFIRMED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 9-30 a.m. Jan. 19.

The Persian official circles in London have not received any confirmation of the abdication of the Shah and a telegram from Teheran dated the 16th makes no mention of any political upheaval.

Other circles in close touch with the Persian affairs entirely discredit the report.

GOVERNMENT'S BIG SHIP POLICY.

REPORT OF ABANDONMENT UNFOUNDED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 9-30 a.m. Jan. 19.

The report that the Government has decided to abandon big ship policy is described as unfounded. The Sub-committee on naval construction has hitherto not reached any decision.

FARROW'S BANK FAILURE.

AUDITOR RELEASED ON BAIL.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 9-30 a.m. Jan. 19.

Mr. Hart, the auditor of the Farrow's Bank, has been released on bail having found the necessary sureties of two thousand sterling.

LONDON BANKS LIKELY TO TAKE OVER MANY BRANCHES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 3-45 p.m., Jan. 19.

Replying to a correspondent the receiver states that it is impossible for another bank to take over the Farrow's in consequence of the poverty of the assets of the latter although some London banks will possibiy take over many branches. Mr. Farrow's furniture at his house at St. Leonards was put up for auction yesterday and the auction continues to-day.

AWARDS TO OFFICERS OF INDIAN ARMY.

FOR VALUABLE SERVICES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 1 p.m., Jan. 19.

The "Gazette" contains the following awards to the officers of the Indian army for valuable services with the British Black Sea army:—

MILITARY CROSSES.

Captains H. L. Davies J. D. Standen and Lieut. W. B Farrer.

There are also several mentions.

DE VALERA'S APPEAL FOR UNITY.

HIS LETTER TO LORD MAYOR OF DUBLIN.

"TO MEET PRESENT THREAT TO OUR EXISTENCE."

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 1 p.m., Jan. 19.

De Valera, who was recently stated to be preparing a manifesto which might possibly pave the way to peace, has sent a letter to the Lord Mayor of Dublin appealing for unity "to meet the present threat to our existence."

SEQUEL TO DUBLIN MURDERS.

AN AMBUSH PARTY SURPRISED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 1 p.m., Jan .19.

A number of arrests have been made recently in connection with the murders of officers in Dublin in November and it is expected that a court-martial will begin at the end of the month

A communique states that a detachment of the Essex Regiment to-day surprised a party of men who were preparing an ambush at Timcleague, County Cork. After an exchange of fire twenty-five civilians were captured. There were no casualties to the troops.

APPEAL AGAINST COURT-MARTIAL'S DEATH SENTENCE

GRANTED BY HIGH COURT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.,
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 9-30 a.m. Jan. 19.

The Military operations in Dublin have isolated the High Court which to-day is hearing an appeal by a Cork man, Murphy, against the death sentence passed by the court martial for participation in an ambush. The leave to appeal was granted. The Court adjourned the application till January 24th suspending execution, which should have been carried out on the 19th till the 26th. The grant of the appeal against the court martial is unprecedented.

TROOPS INVESTING DUBLIN WITHDRAWN.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 3-45 p.m., Jan. 19.

The troops investing Dublin have been withdrawn after thirty-six hours.

TURKISH NATIONALISTS' VICTORY.

GREEK TROOPS DEFEATED N. W. OF ESKISHEH R.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 3-45 p.m., Jan. 19.

A Constantinople message states that the Nationalists claim to have defeated the Greeks north-west of Eskishehr and to have forced them to retreat along the whole line with heavy losses including eight hundred prisoners.

CONNECTION TO BE DISCUSSED IN PREMIERS' MEETING.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 3-45 p.m., Jan. 19.

The opinion is generally expressed that the Imperial Premiers' meeting in June will discuss the connection of the Colonial Office and the Dominions. It is suggested in some quarters that the Dominions matters may eventually be transferred to the Lord President of the Council.

MR. CHURCHILL TO GO TO COLONIAL OFFICE.

The death is announced of the Reverend William A. Luckman the late Archdeacon of Calcutta.

COMING CONFERENCE IN PARIS.

SUBJECTS TO BE DISCUSSED.

POSITION OF TURKEY SAID TO BE OBSCURE.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 17.
Recd. 1-30 p.m., Jan. 19.

Reuter understands that conversations in the approaching Paris Conference will be confined to the disarmament of Germany, the reparations, the Turkish Treaty which France is anxious to discuss and possibly the danger of collapse of Austria. The British are of the opinion that disarmament is not likely to need long consideration before an agreement is reached. It is not thought possible that the reparations can be finally settled. Probably the matter will not go beyond a general exchange of views.

France and Britain will have to decide how far the question is capable of a settlement at present, but Britain believes that nothing definite can be attained until further information from Germany is available. The question is not only what the Allies want but what they can get.

With reference to the Treaty of Sevres it must be remembered that the position of Turkey is somewhat obscure. The whereabouts of Izzet Pasha and the mission which was sent from Constantinople to arrange matters with Mustapha Kemal are unknown. The mission was expected to leave Angora on the conclusion of the work at the end of December but it is thought at present that it is still with Mustapha Kemal.

CALCUTTA TAXI DRIVER'S STRIKE.

URGENT MEETING OF DRIVERS CALLED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
CALCUTTA, Jan. 18

In view of the fact that Mr. Clarke, Police Commissioner, has agreed to recommend to Government some modifications in the existing rules affecting motor drivers, an urgent meeting of the drivers of every description of motor vehicles on strike will be held to-morrow to consider if those concessions are acceptable to the strikers and to nominate members if the deputation to wait upon the Commissiontr of Police

So far as Mr. P. Roy Choudhuri, Secretary of the Motor Drivers' Association, has been able to ascertain the views of the men on the subject, he is inclined to think that the strike will be very short-lived provided a slight advance is made by the Police Commissioner in respect of concessions already made and provided the recommendations made by the Commissioner are accepted by Government. The strikers feel that on the mere recommendation they would not be quite justijed in putting an end to the strike, unless they were perfectly satisfied about Government's acceptance.

At a meeting of the strikers held this evening some further modifications of the rules were suggested. It was also settled that they would consider the question of sending a deputation to the Commissioner, after ascertaining the result of the driver Issur Singh's case fixed for tomorrow. Issur Singh was arrested by a police servant on Chowringhee Road and this led to the present strike. It was decided not to ask the drivers of motor cars, belonging to medical practitioners and motor vans, belonging to the General Post office to join the strikers. The Postal motor vans have been provided with military escorts as a precautionary measure, two of their drivers having been interfered with by strikers in the morning.

PRIVATE CARS STOP RUNNING.

Practically all the drivers of private cars have ceased work to-day chiefly as a result of intimidation by strikers. A few sergeants and constables, with regulation lathis, were seen patrolling the streets. A number of cases of private drivers being held up and molested, occurred yesterday and today and some arrests were made today. Two drivers were convicted of disorderly conduct, in that they were trying to induce the driver of a private car to join them, and fined Rs. 10 each. Two other drivers were arrested to-day on a similar charge.

BARBER ELECTED IN BY-ELECTION.

PUNJAB LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LAHORE, Jan. 18.

Mr. Uttamchand, a barber by profession, was declared duly elected to the Punjab Legislative Council to-day in the bye-election in connection with the Lahore city non-Mahomedan seat, rendered vacant by the resignation of Lala Ganpat Rai, Bar.-at-Law. Many non-cooperators, who abstained from voting during the recent general election, had changed their attitude this time, and voted in large numbers for Uttamchand, who contested the seat against two other candidates, both of them title-holders. Mr. Uttamchand headed the poll with a majority of over 500 votes. The result of voting was as follows:—Uttamchand 912, Rai Bahadur Mohanlal 399 and R. B. Milkhiram 252.

COLLEGE-BOYCOTT IN CALCUTTA CONTINUES

NEW NATIONAL COLLEGE OPENED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
CALCUTTA, Jan. 17.

The students, who have withdrawn from colleges, are still holding out. Mr. C. R. Das addressed seven students' meetings to-day, urging them to come out of their colleges.

The final B. L. examination commenced to-day. There were only a few absentees.

KASHI VIDYAPITH,

SOON TO BE INAUGURATED.

(From our Correspondent.)
ALLAHABAD, Jan. 18.

In furtherance of the programme of Non-Cooperation and the cause of National Education a University called the Kashi Vidyapith will soon be started in Benares. A strong general committee has been provisionally formed with Mr. Bhagawan Das as Chairman and Mr. Shivaprasad Gupta as Secretary. Among the public men requested to join the committee are Messrs. Gandhi, Motilal Nehru, Swami Shradhanand, Hakim Ajmal Khan, Messrs. Mahomed Ali and Jawaharlal Nehru. A working committee for taking immediate preliminary steps has been also formed.

It is proposed to start an Arts College at Benares with Babu Bhagawan Das as Principal and Professor Kripalini as Vice-Principal. Provision will be made in this college for students from the first year class to the sixth year. A complete scheme embodying courses and method of work based on Hindi as medium of instruction is in course of preparation. For the present and for sometime to come during the transition period the courses of the Allahabad University will be adhered to. Students coming from the Government colleges will thus be in a position to continue their studies without interruption. It is hoped the college will be started in a fortnight. The staff is being engaged and suitable accommodation is being made. Mahatma Gandhi, it is expected will perform the opening ceremony. Babu Shiva Prasad has promised a monthly donation of Rs. 1,000 and other subscriptio have also been promised.

I understand the local Government will after all appoint a committee to enquire into the recent disturbances at Rae Bardli There is a greater certainty in the Provincial Congress Committee appointing a non-official committee in connection with th same.

"YOU MUST NOT RECEDE"

SILENT RECOGNITION OF NON-VIOLENCE BATTLE

MR. GANDHI'S MESSAGE TO YOUNG BENGAL

(From our Correspondent.)
AHMEDABAD, Jan. 19.

On receipt of the news that 8,000 students have struck in Calcutta, Mahatma Gandhi has addressed a most inspiring message to Young Bengal through his paper "Young India." "Dear young friends, I have just read an account of your response to the nation's call. It does credit to you and Bengal. I had expected no less, certainly expect still more. Bengal has great intelligence, greater heart, more than its share of spiritual heritage, imagination, faith and emotion. There is no reason, therefore, why Bengal should not lead. Now, you have taken the step, you will not recede. You had an ample time to think. You have paused and considered. You held Congress that first delivered to the nation the message of Non-Cooperation. The Nagpur Congress ratified, clarified and amplified this declaration of the message delivered in strife, doubt, disunion, but at Naypur redelivered amidst joy, acclamation and practically perfect unanimity. It was open to you to refuse or hesitate. But you have chosen the better, though from the worldly standpoint a less cautious way. You dare not go back without hurting yourselves, and the cause. We cannot get Swaraj, if not one class in the country is prepared to work and sacrifice for it. Government will yield not to logic of words, it knows no logic, save that of brave and true deeds."

OBSERVE STRICT NON-VIOLENCE.

The Mahatmaji then exhorts the students to observe strict non-violence, as the Government is unconquerable in the art of meeting and suppressing violence. Therefore, the Mahatmaji says students must not be hasty or intolerant towards those unable seeing eye to eye with them. They must suspend studies for one year, and study methods of bringing Swaraj quietly even within one year. He presents them with a spinning wheel, which according to him, is the secret of Swaraj, since on it depends India's economic salvation.

SECRET OF SWARAJ.

Under "the secret of Swaraj" the Mahatmaji in another article exhorts the entire Indian student world to suspend normal studies, since these are abnormal times and the nation is engaged in a spiritual war. Just as during the late war every factory was turned into an arsenal for turning out lead bullets, so during this war every national school and college should be turned into a factory for preparing tons of yarns with which to liberate the nation.

The Mahatmaji discoursed the students of the Gujarat Mahavidyalaya on the above theme Thursday last, with the result that many have suspended studies and turned wholetime spinners, while almost all have undertaken spinning at least four hours daily.

About Lord Reading's appointment the Mahatmaji says the public is indifferent. A military dictator is as good, if not better The appointment, however, is a silent recognition of our non-violent battle, and, therefore, a diplomat of judicial training thought fit as best Viceroy. If Lord Reading means doing right, he must swallow up, morning destroy, the present system of Government, otherwise he might be swallowed away by the system.

PUNJAB AGAIN!

CLAIM FOR RACIAL EQUALITY

MR JAMNADAS' RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas has given notice to the Secretary, Indian Legislative Assembly that he will move the following resolutions at the next meeting of the Legislative Assembly:—

"That this Assembly recommends that the Governor General in Council be pleased to appoint a representative committee consisting of officials and non-officials, including elected members from the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, with full powers (1) to investigate the question of Indian tariffs, (2) to collect all available evidence from exporters and importers and other interests in all the parts of the country, and (3) to submit a report suggesting a new fiscal policy for India in the interest of its industrial growth with due regard to the economic condition of the masses of the people of India, who are the real producers and consumers."

PUNJAB HORRORS.

"That this Assembly recommends to His Excellency the Governor-General in Council (1) to declare the firm resolve of the Government of India to maintain that the connection of India with the British Empire is based on the idea of equal partnership and perfect racial equality. Indian lives and Indian honour being held as sacred as British lives and honour, (2) to express regret that the martial law administration in the Punjab in 1919 departed from these principles and was calculated to deeply wound the self-respect of the Indian population by subjecting them to unnecessary hardship and humiliation, (3) to mete out deterrent punishments to officers who were found guilty of improper exercise of their powers and to take steps to relieve the Indian revenue of all payments towards the pension, gratuities or compassionate allowances to such officers, and (4) to award adequate compensation to the families of those killed or injured at the Jallianwalla Bagh or other places, on the same scale as the compensation awarded in the case of Europeans who suffered or were killed during the Punjab disturbances."

REFORMS IN AJMER-MERWARA.

BOYCOTTED BY AJMER PUBLIC.

(From our Correspondent.)
DELHI, Jan. 17.

At a meeting of the citizens of Ajmer held in the Town Hall, Mr. Lalta Prasad presiding it was unanimously resolved that the inquiry committee appointed by Government of India in connection with the reforms in Ajmer-Merwara be boycotted and that any person giving evidence contrary to the wishes of the public is not a true representative of the people and that in accordance with the congress resolution all persons should cease to have any political dealings with such persons.

Five persons among the audience who were of the opposite view began to hold their own meeting but were persuaded to leave the hall. Mr. Chandkaran Sarda exhorted the audience to bide by the Congress resolution on Non-cooperation and to obtain Swaraj within nine months. Preparations are in progress to open a national school and subscriptions are being collected. Trade and labour unions are also being organised.

SIND COLLEGE TROUBLE

ALL STUDENTS GO ON STRIKE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
KARACHI, Jan. 19.

The Principal having failed to withdraw the alleged insulting words towards some students, another meeting was held yesterday by the students in Burns Garden, when they resolved to go on strike unless the Principal apologised. Consequently, practically the whole college went on strike this morning.

ANARCHY IN CORK

GEN. STRICKLAND'S THREAT OF "DRASTIC STEPS"

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20.

General Strickland, in a letter to the Deputy Mayor of Cork, refers to the recent dastardly attempts at the murder of police, and says that the present state of affairs in the city cannot be allowed to continue. He will therefore, be compelled to take drastic steps to secure the lives of the Crown forces against cowardly attacks of assassins in the streets.

General Strickland refers to the recent representations to him to secure reprieve of Murphy, who was condemned by a court-martial to death and also saying that martial law was bearing heavily upon the innocents. He does not think that the enforcement of Martial-law has inconvenienced the population. He contrasts with the city's foregoing requests for consideration two most dastardly attempts during the last fortnight to murder the Irish constabulary, who were performing their duty in streets in an orderly and disciplined manner, one ending fatally and the other likely to do so. He says it is inconceivable that the majority of inhabitants do not view the murders with disgust but he sees no trace of steps being taken to purge the city of assassins.

General Strickland, after threatening drastic measures, concludes that he is ready to give the inhabitants every consideration, but he emphasises that the cause of peace cannot be promoted by a passive attitude.

THE GERMAN EMPIRE

UNITY OF FATHERLAND

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20

Berlin.—Dr. Ebert has issued a manifesto on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the Empire, extolling the German tribes and bewailing the separation from their compatriotic, particularly Austria. He adds that despite the differences of political and economic views, the frontiers will not divide them. He says that the unity of the Fatherland is the article of faith and earnest hope of all.

TRADE WITH RUSSIA

IMPOSSIBLE FOR A LONG TIME

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20.

Interviewed on his return to London, Sir Percy Sykes, head of the trade mission to Copenhagen, expressed the opinion that substantial trade with Russia was impossible for a long time, owing to Russia's lack of exportable commodities. Thus, the Soviet clearing house in Copenhafen had broken down. Meanwhile, negotiations are proceeding in London with a view to concentrating on the Baltic states, where conditions are more hopeful.

INDIAN COAL EMBARGO

GOOD DEAL OF UNEASINESS REPORTED

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 19.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20.

"The Times" states that there is a good deal of uneasiness owing to the reports of embargo on coal for which contracts have already been made, could not be shipped to the coaling stations. The shipping companies' supplies will be seriously affected, if the proposed embargo is enhanced. Doubtless, coal could be shipped from Britain; but the trade contends that there should be no interference with the existing contracts and if, as appears to be the case, the supplies from India promise to be inadequate to meet all industrial and exporting requirements, it would be reasonable before disturbing the current contracts to ask those who have not already contracted firstly to make their own arrangements for fresh supplies.

COTTON GROWING PROSPECTS

MISSIONS TO NIGERIA AND TANGANJIKY

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20.

The Board of Trade announces that the Empire Cotton-growing Committee has appointed Sir Hector Duff to undertake a mission to Nigeria and Major Hastings Horne to undertake a similar mission to Tanganyika to investigate cotton growing prospects. The Committee believes that there are great cotton-growing possibilities in Nigeria and has asked Sir H. Duff to report how the industry can best be developed. Major Horne sailed for Tanganyika on October 6th.

ANGLO-CONTINENTAL AIR TRAFFIC

RAPID PROGRESS

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20.

The Air Ministry statistics for the Anglo-Continental air traffic show that the last quarter of 1,920 exceeded the total traffic for the six months from October 1919 to March 1920. The departures from and arrivals in London during the former period were each 406 whereas in the latter period, they were 338 and 346 respectively. Since the opening of the first continental service, on August 26, 1919 till the end of 1920 out of the 4,153 departures and arrivals, the British machines contributed 3,321; French 721; Belgian 104 and other nationalities seven.

UNDESIRABILITIES IN PARIS

MOST ACTIVE CAMPAIGN WAGED

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Jan. 18.
Recd. 1 a.m., Jan. 20.

A Paris message states that a most active campaign is being waged against undesirabilities in Paris. There are nightly raids in different quarters. All whose papers are not in order are arrested. These include 700, who are suspected of Bolshevist propaganda, preparing for an international Communist movement. Police in the provinces are similarly active.

NON-COOPERATION OF STUDENTS

A SUREST MEANS OF PARALYSING UNJUST GOVT.

Under the auspices of the Young Nationalists League another public meeting was held at the premises of the "Sandesh" office yesterday evening, when Mr. Zahur Ahmed of the U. P. and Mr. Mahomed Athar addressed the gathering on Non-Cooperation. Mr. A. B. Kolatkar presided.

Mr. Zahur Ahmed said the necessity of Non-Cooperation with the British and the Indian Governments was no longer required to be explained. Whenever, the personal liberty and the religious faith of a people were wrongly or aggressively interfered with, some sort of unrest prevailed among them; and they tried to shake off that wrong by any means they could get hold of. That was exactly what had happened in India at present. The situation in India at present was that when her immediate neighbours were enjoying Self-Determination, when she (India) had shed her blood to secure Self-Determination for other weaker nations, she was entangled with the heaviest chain of slavery. After sacrificing lakhs of her sons in the battle field. on false promises the Britishers after the war had ended began to tread her self-respect under their feet and destroyed the great religious institution of her people.

These were the wrongs that India tried to get redressed to-day. Fifty years ago, India wanted liberty of speech, liberty of thought and other civic rights of a civilized people. And to-day. after fifty years' struggle the first thing she got in compliance with her demand was the legislation like the Press Act and the Rowlatt Act. The second thing she got was the lesson taught by the Punjab massacre. The Punjab massacre showed them distinctly that if they proceeded a step further than mendicancy and begging for their rights, the machine guns were ready to fell them quiet on the ground. Now, they were struggling to get rid of their unjust rulers. But. their fight would be of new sort in the world. They would use no other weapons in their fight for liberty, except that of Mahatma Gandhi's non-violent Non-Cooperation.

HOW N. C. O. SHOULD BE PRACTISED.

The speaker then explained how Non-cooperation should be practised. He said it was an open fact that the Government of this country was absolutely impossible without the cooperation of the Indians. But, there were many Indians at the same time who depended solely on the Government for their bread. So the first appeal should be made to those who partly depended on the Government. The lawyers were the only community whom they should approach before others. The lawyers and the litigants could do very well without the present law courts which were more of farce than courts of justice. The real interpretation of British justice, said the speaker, could be experienced when the litigant parties were Indian versus Europeans. Instances were not rare to seek, of cases when a European was charged with murdering an Indian and the Court passed its decision as "the deceased died of the rupture of spleen and the accused is ordered to be acquitted." Their next appeal should be made to the students who were to be the future clerks, sub-Inspectors and sub-overseers of the Government. And, if these came out of the present slave-producing institutions and devoted themselves to the cause of their country, they would soon see that the Government would be their own. The Non-cooperation of the students was one of the surest means of paralysing their unjust Government who would not be able to move an inch without them.

Mr. Mahomed Athar exhorted the audience to take up the cause in right earnest and without much loss of time. He earnestly asked the youngmen to rise to the occasion and to be practical and up and doing.

PORT TRUST EMPLOYEES.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—Kindly excuse me for encroaching upon the valuable space of your paper for bringing to the notice of the public the glaring injustice that is being done to the Bombay Port Trust Railway servants.

The so-called revision of the pay of almost all the Departments of the Bombay Port Trust Railway has been out and arrears of pay also have been drawn by these Departments in May 1920; and yet some of the Departments such as the temporary staff of the engineering etc. are being lulled into silence for the past eight months.

Will the authorities wake up and give relief to the poor distressed people?—Yours, etc.,

ONE DISGUSTED.

INDIAN RAILWAYS

whose boards of directors are now located in London.

The figures indicating mileage would give some idea of these railways:—

State lines Worked by the state.	Eastern Bengal Ry.	1,600
	North Western Ry.	3,800
	Oudh & Rohilkhand Ry.	1,500
State lines Worked by companies	East Indian Ry.	2,700
	Great Indian Peninsula Ry.	2,600
	B.B. & C.I. Ry.	3,100
	M & S.M. Ry.	2,600
	S. I. Ry.	1,400
	Burma Ry.	1,600
	Assam Bengal Ry.	900
	Bengal Nagpur Ry.	3,000
Private Line—Bengal and North Western Ry.		1,200

Share Capital of Companies Working State Lines.

The chief point to be noted regarding the companies working the State lines is that they own a very small portion of the total capital outlay as their share capital, and therefore, their stake in the undertaking is very little. Thus in the B. B. and C. I. Ry. the State outlay is £31 millions while the share capital of the company is only Great Indian Peninsula Railway, the total outlay exceeds £52 millions but the share capital of the company is only £2½ millions. In the case of the East Indian Railway there is no share capital at all but the Government has allowed the company to capitalis deferred amnity. The combined share capital of all the companies operating the State lines amounts to only £18 millions, whereas the total capital outlay on their laws exceeds £245 millions. This is a very important point, and we shall have to refer to it in connection with the clamour of the managing companies for a free hand to finance extension, and improvement of open lines, and to regulate expenditure.

Some Aspects of Railway Finance.

The main issues of Indian railway finance centre round (1) the total sum set apart for improvement of open lines from revenue and capital (2) the raising of funds by loan (3) the programme of new construction and (4) the allocation of the grant for rolling stock and other purposes.

The capital expenditure budgeted by the Government of India has been criticised by Indian opinion as excessive, and the Indian view is that less should be spent on railways and more on irrigation. A rapid policy of railway extension is not justified by the economic condition of the country as primarily agricultural country does not require a large railway mileage and frequent additional outlay. The European Chambers of Commerce and other foreign interests have always been clamouring for big railway programme—extension and improvement—. In the year 1908 a departmental committee of the India Office recommended an annual capital programme of £21½ millions. Though this was not an authoritative committee the Government. ready to oblige the foreign financial and exploiting sharks, endeavoured to adhere to that programme. In the two years 1913-14, and 1914-15 the capital expenditure was £12½ and £11½ millions respectively. In the three subsequent years it was £9 millions in all and this was due to the prevalence of war conditions. In 1918-19 it was £4¼ millions. In the year 1919-20, it was £17 3/4 millions. The European commercial and financial interests ask for a programme on this scale to be worked upto every year. The Punjab Chamber of Commerce wants 30 crores to be spent annually.

The Conflict of Interests: Indian v. European.

The predominant issue may be summed up thus: Indian interests demand a limited capital outlay and the exercise of much closer financial scrutiny over railway expenditure of than that which at present exists, the European exploiters agitate for 9 big railway programme far in excess of the country's need and capacity, regardless of cost and freehand for the companies to raise and spend large sums with little or no control by the State. It should be noted that the railways for more than fifty years did not pay their way. Until 1900 there was a loss of over £50 millions on revenue account. In the past two decades that loss has not been made good. This is often forgotten by the people who talk of "big railway surpluses."

Regarding new construction our policy should be negative. The present system has grown so vast and for several years to come a policy of consolidation, and not extension, should be our watchword.

Expenditure on Rolling Stock.

Enormous sums have been spent during the past ten years on rolling stock; and yet there is a clamour of still larger expenditure on this account. The trade, commercial and industrial expansion during the past decade, does not justify any very large increase, this point will be demonstrated by statistical data later on. This being so, why do we hear of the perpetual shortage of rolling stock? The reason lies in the wasteful policy of the companies and the lack of a central agency to coordinate the available rolling stock and took the freight traffic of all the State railways as one system. The economical utilisation of rolling stock, the stoppage of empty running that now goes on an on enormous scale, the termination of the conflict of interests between rival companies, the regrouping of the entire railway system in such a way that the different agencies managing State lines could not indulge in wasteful competion at the expense of the state, these are the reforms that should be carried out speedily to bring about a better state of affairs.

The Rate Policy and Foreign Trade.

The rate policy that the railway companies have pursued, both as regards the classification of commodities and rate fixation, has been unduly favourable to the abnormal expansion of the foreign commerce and prejudicial to the development of internal trade. The policy has also been unfavourable to the growth of Indian industries. There are many instances where a non-paying rate is quoted on costly articles imported from Britain: and the grain rate on wheat etc., from the great up country centres to the ports has been very low. There have been several rate wars during the past, and the result has always been the expansion of foreign commerce and the penalising of internal trade and indigenous industries. To give one instance: in the year 1905 the two companies E. I. Ry. and G. I. P. Ry., entered into a rate war and unduly lowered the rate on sugar. The result was from the year, the imports of sugar rose rapidly.

Railway Board and Government control.

There can be no doubt as to the failure of the Railway Board. The Board must go. A member for Railways is necessary but it should be stated that the Railway Department should not consist of ex-agents of the companies. The reason why the Railway Board has been a failure is that it has been the citadel of men who were connected with the companies managing State railways and who were looking forward to join the companies London Boards of Directors after retirement. This has made it impossible for such persons to protect the interests of the public and the state when such interests were in conflict with those of the companies.

Indian Boards vs. State Management.

The proposal to meet the criticism of foreign boards by Indianising the Boards or reforming the companies cannot be accepted as meeting the requirements of the case. The question is one of State versus Company management. Even if all the Boards were Indian—a thing that cannot materialise for there are not Indian Agencies to buy out the £18 millions of share capital or the greater portion thereof—the present evils would remain as the dividend would be the first consideration of all companies. As public policy requires the elimination of the conflict of interests, the issue is clear and the companies must go. The contract of the G. I. P. Ry expires in 1925, and the present contract with the East Indian Railway has been extended till that year. So no time should be lost, and Indian efforts should be focussed on a policy of speedy and effective arrangements to take over these two lines in a few years. Once this is done, half the battle would have been won, and the next question to be considered will be how to take over the management of the other lines.

RAI BARELI TRAGEDY.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir—Almost every day we find a communique published by the Government on the Rai Bareilly riot incident; will Mahatma Gandhiji depute somebody or Mr. Motilal Nehru institute a non-official private enquiry into the matter and give the public some idea as regards the other side of the question as was done in the case of the Punjab atrocities.—Yours etc.,

A Press note stated:

KOHINOOR MILL LOCK-OUT ENDS.

MR. JOSHI'S SUCCESSFUL INTERVENTION

The Kohinoor mill lock out has ended the Agents and the Manager have taken a more reasonable view of the whole situation now, as a result of Mr. N. M. Joshi's intervention on behalf of the men. The Committee which was appointed on the previous day at once set to work and Mr. Joshi saw the Manager with a view to arrive at some sort of settlement. As a result of the interview the Manager reopened the mill to the workmen, and on Wednesday morning, work was resumed. The men have undertaken to behave peacefully in the future They will be paid their bonus today and their wages on Monday next.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The men have now resumed work but without the jobbers giving an undertaking to the Police as originally demanded by the Manager. It appears, however, that the men will be paid the bonus on Thursday but not the pay till the 24th. In my first letter to you I said that the Manager instead of assuring the men that they will get pay and bonus at once declared that he would not give either pay or bonus till the 24th. This now receives some corroboration from the fact that the pay will be paid till the 24th instant. Why should this be delayed? What justification is there? The Agents, no doubt imagine that this sort of punishments will humiliate the men into passive submission They are blundering as Britishers are accustomel to blunder. These things will not be forgotten nor forgiven. If they are wise they will listen to my advice and pay them their wages at once as also the wages for the days they are locked out. If they do so voluntarily they will inspire confidence and promote peace and harmony. If not, they are only inviting avoidable trouble. The demand for a guarantee from the jobbers has been wisely abandoned.—Yours. etc.,

DOCK WORKMEN'S UNION.

MEN'S MASS MEETING.

On Sunday night at Matharpacady, Mazgaon. a large number of men from different workshops in the Docks assembled under the rresidency of Mr. F. J. Ginwala, Solicitor. He. as well as Mr. Jabhwala, the Honourable Secretary of the Men's Union and Mahadeorao Kerkar addressed the men on different questions pertaining to their welfare and thereafter resolutions sympathising with Mr. B. J. Wadia in connection with the Buckinhgam Mills trial, requesting the managers of the different workshops under Messrs. Mackinnon Mackenzie. Messrs. Alcock Ashdown and others to grant men concessions in relation to leave, wages etc., were passed. The meeting terminated late amidst enthusiasm as a large number of men are getting in the Union and a keen sense is enlivened among the men of their own duties.

THE BHATIA BAUGH EYE-SORE.

RECOMMENDATION TO HIDE ITS UGLY HEAD!

A meeting of the Standing Committee of the Bombay Municipal Corporation was held yesterday, Mr. Mirza A. M. Khan presiding, when it was resolved to forward to the Corporation the following letter from the Commissioner dated the 11th January 1921, with a recommendation that the sanction asked for in it be granted:—

"I have the honour to refer to the Corporation Resolution No. 3939. dated the 23rd July 1920, requesting me to expedite the construction of underground conveniences near Bhatia Baug (Victoria Square) and that if that were not possible, asking me erect a suitable screen round the urinal so as give it a decent appearance. Plans and estimates for the underground conveniences are being prepared, and as it will take some time before the work is carried out, it is proposed to provide a screen as shown in the accompanying drawing at a cost of Rs. 790 as per the accompanying estimate. As there is no provision in the Budget I request the sanction of the Standing Committee and the Corporation to an additional grant of Rs. 790 being made from the Surplus Cash Balance for the purpose."

THE BANNER OF ISLAM.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The order of the District Magistrate, dated 2nd December 1920, as regards the removal of the Turkish Flag from the Habibiya Library, has been withdrawn by the District Magistrate, Belgaum, as the following Memo to the Secretary will show:—

"The District Magistrate has received the Secretary's letter of the 8th December. The Secretary is mistaken in supposing that any objection was taken to the wearing or exhibition of the 'Hilal.' Objection was taken by a section of the population to the exhibition of a flag generally recognised as Turkish. The Secretary's explanation, that the flag is intended as a religious emblem and not as a Turkish one, has been conveyed to the persons who objected to its exhibition. The notice issued by the District Magistrate is therefore withdrawn."

(Sd.) G. & MACGREGOR,
D. M. Belgaum.

The readers can judge for themselves who "is mistaken in supposing that any objection was taken to the wearing or exhibition of the 'Hilal.'

The bureaucracy only knows who form that mysterious "section of the population" who objected to the exhibition of the Flag.—Yours, etc.

TILAK VIDYALAYA AT NAGPUR.

REVISED CURRICULUM OF STUDIES.

(From a Correspondent.)

NAGPUR, Jan. 17.

The Tilak Vidyalaya or National High School, Nagpur was started on 3rd January with about 50 students. The total number now is about 350. The Vidyalaya comprises all classes from 1st English to 7th Matric, with several classes of more than one section. The Vidyalaya is located in two separate buildings in the city, one for the middle classes and the other for the Matric classes. Numerous enquiries are pouring in and the following is given out for public information.

The present curriculum is practically the same as in other local schools. The course for matriculation is almost the same as that of the Allahabad University. This is to give facility to students who have already completed nine months in other schools and to render an annual examination possible in April next. Committee meetings are being held to prepare a new and more useful curriculum, better suited to national needs. It will come into force on 1st May when fresh classes will begin. Some of the principal considerations are higher and more useful courses for the study of Marathi, better knowledge of English language and idioms than in government schools. Hindustani in either the Devanagari or the Persian script will be a compulsory subject in all classes and at least in the three higher classes one handicarft, spinning, weaving. tailoring, shoe-making or carpentry will be compulsory. Rapid arrangements are being made for starting these classes. Hindi is already compulsory. Students below sixteen not admitted without the written consent of guardians. The teaching staff consits of a highly competent, self-sacrificing band of young men, who at the nation's call have Non-Cooperated as students or teachers. One of these came from the M. S. C. class, one from final LL.B., two from previous LL.B., three from senior B.A., one from junior B.A., and so on. All these teachers are paid only bare subsistence allowances according to one uniform scale which varies according to the number of dependents each has to support.

It is proposed that the entire management of the Vidyalaya be entrusted to a board consisting of six representatives of teachers elected by them from amongst themselves, six representatives of students similarly elected and six representatives of guardians.

"BOYCOTT" "NEW INDIA."

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I had been keeping patience for a very long time about the attitude of "New India" towards the Non-Cooperation movement inaugurated by Mahatma Gandhi which is an immediate and a real measure taken in order to remedy the various evils, wrongs, and injustices commited by the Government to the people of India for the last so many days. But so far the attitude of Mrs. Besant and her paper the "New India" is concerned towards this movement it is very disappointing, discouraging, and the phrases and the words employed in the columns of "New India" is very very offensive and insulting, not only to the Non-Cooperation movement but also to its author the revered Mahatma Gandhi. So whatever insult and abusive words employed towards Mr. Gandhi is not only a discredit and disrespect to his movement but also it affects Mr. Gandhi as well as to the whole Indian Nation. I had been watching this paper very carefully for the last so many days, but I am not able to keep patience any longer on account of the scandaous, and vehement attacks that she makes very frequently in the "New India" towads Mr. Gandhi, and as a matter of fact she is devoting daily at least not less than three columns to pour out poisonous words towards Mr. Gandhi and his movement. Strictly speaking of all the various newspapers circulation in this country this is the only paper that makes very terrible attacks towards Mahatma Gandhi, which I deplore to a very great extent. Besides this in a very recent issue of "New India" she stated that the Congress was dead since some of the Moderate leaders, and some Old Congress men refrained from attending the congress. But I say emphatically that the above statement is absolutely a great stupid blunder committed by Mrs. Besant, as she has not realised the position, and the feelings of the Indians when they were outraged and injured very seriously in the most tyrannical manner by the Punjab Government, and also by the other Government authorities. So far my opinion is concerned Mrs. Besant is already deprived of her usual senses as she has not yet realised her critical position even after receiving so many abusive words from Indians in several meetings in which she addressed. So I appeal very strongly to all the Indians to boycott "New India" at the earliest possible date by conducting meetings in all the provinces, if the Indians have got any respect to Mr. Gandhi.—Yours, etc.

OUR POLITICAL EXILE.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—It was announced last week that the satrap of the Bengal has been pleased to allow amnesty to Political Prisoners of Bengal. Will the Government of this Presidency headed by Sir George Lloyd consider the case of Mr. B. G. Horniman and take steps to see that he may be able to get a pass-port to return to India? We know that he is not even a political prisoner and hence one can expect better treatment to the man loved by all in Bombay, at the hands of Sir George Lloyd! People talk and talk loudly among themselves that if the present Government is not devoid of wisdom and common-sense, it should not delay taking the right step and making ample ammends for its past folies.—Yours, etc.

CALCUTTA LETTER.

ALL COLLEGE STUDENTS OUT!

A SENSATIONAL MANIFESTO.

(From our Correspondent.)

CALCUTTA, Jan. 14.

Almost all Calcutta college students have left colleges. It was decided that on the 13th yesterday, Non-Cooperation would commence as the day was an auspicious one owing to the Tila Sankrant, when Bengali's prepare at home cakes and eat them along with friends. You will thus see that what I wrote you in my last letters has come true after all though the "Englishman" in its issue dated 24th December said that my letter in the "Bombay Chronicle" contained absurd allegations regarding the students and that none in Calcutta "except this penny-a-liner heard anything." Seeing itself beaten in Calcutta news by the "Bombay Chronicle" the "Englishman" lost its head as if its writers are not paid for their trouble, salary or lineage. And after all this morning the "Englishman" announces that the students are really out! So while we Bengalis are eating our home made cakes, the "Englishman" has eaten humble pie!

The Bangabasee College is leading, with all students. Then comes the Ripon College (owned by Sir Surendranath Banerji) And no wonder because Sir Surendranath Banerji once did non-co-operate. After his arrest at Barisal 12 years ago by Magistrate Emperson, he came back to his home at Barrackpore, and resigned the chairmanship of the Barrackpore Municipality and asked others to give up all connections with the authorities who were so high-handed! Thereafter, he was crowned king, raised a flag, organised boycott, and after all yielded to the very officials. His own paper had the head line "Knighthood conferred unsolicited."

The Green Manifesto.

I enclose a green manifesto in Bengali which has been issued and printed by the "Chhatra Sabha" of the Calcutta students. This has been printed for circulation among the student community alone. The first paragraph translated runs as under:—

"In the opinion of this Sabhha the only way to escape this arbitrary foreign domination is the method known as peaceful, legitimate all round Swadeshi Brata, and carrying it out into execution by non-violent method."

The second paragraph refers to the failure of the present university education, broken down health and inability to earn money under the present system.

The third deals with establishment of national institutions where handiwork is taught and "manhood promoted."

The fourth deals with teachers and salary. The fifth with the union among students, which really has taken us by surprise today. The last paragraph deals with forming of committees.

Excitement in Calcutta.

It is generally believed that such a scene was never witnessed in Calcutta before. Though yesterday was a quiet day, to-day the streets were lined with students leisurely parading. Even at sunny noon, a Shan kirtan party singing songs marched up and down and animation reigned supreme.

Early in the morning, students go about the lanes, bye-lanes and the big thoroughfares in batches of 20 or 30 knocking people out of slumber by their stirring song, and affairs have taken a somewhat sensational complexion.

Out of eleven hundred Law Students at the University Law College five hundred went off like pistol shots! They were to have attended in the morning. Not a soul attended! The six hundred were to have attended this afternoon, and I have not yet obtained any news about their attendance. All Bangabasi College students are out and demand that the college be at once converted into a national institution, and cries of "Gandhi Maharaj-Ki-Jai" rend the air at the gate of all colleges where crowds collect. The St. Xavier and Scottish Churches lads are also out, the former to a man, and the latter numbering five hundred, the rest following suit probably tomorrow or in a day or two.

Impromptu Meetings.

Meetings are taking place in every park and square in Calcutta both mornings and evenings. Morning meetings are rather a rare sight in this world, but what took place this morning is unique and but shows the state of feeling among the students and the public. Before it was 6 o'clock, the students were roused from sleep by scouting parties and rallied in the spacious ground of College Square. Even bugle calls could not have gathered them together so quickly. The muster was so vast in the foggy morning, which was very cold that it created great sensation in the neighbourhood. The deliberations were sharp and summary. Scouting parties were formed and a house to house visitation began, and Non-Co-operation ordered to each sleepy student before the sun was one hour old!—the old Bengali brain and Bengali game again! It is conjectured that a vast meeting will be held to propose a resolution that "Bengal should lead again as a decade back." So Punjabis, Bombaywallas, United Provinces folk look to your laurels!

Mass Meeting at Badon Sqare.

Nearly ten thousand students attended this afternoon at Beadon Square when Mr. C. R. Dass and other leaders proposed measures regarding national colleges. The public also gathered in vast numbers, and enthusiasm was so great that it surpassed the Swadeshi excitement. The din of "Bande Mataram" vied with that of "Gandhi Maharaj-Ki-Jai!"

Other N. C. O.'s

The professors and teachers look very foolish, as whole classes slip away, bowing respectfully off! Those that remain will follow suit, no doubt. But many people surmise that this student non-co-operation will be short-lived. It is stated that the return of the student delegates from Nagpur precipitated matters.

A taxi drivers' strike is in progress, and all vehicular traffic, private, hackney carriages carts lorries, etc., will not ply on Sunday next as a protest against police zodoom, and matters cut deep. News comes from Delhi that Khilafat notes pass in the bazar like current coin, and an eight days' hartal has been organised. Shopping has commenced in Calcutta in view of possible and sudden hartals, in fact some shops closed to-day, owing to some misconception. It is rumoured that arrangements are well in hand about a Calcutta Hartal, but I cannot vouch for its truth.

How School boys are locked in

Seeing the plight of the Presidency College, the chief Government institution in Bengal, the Hare School right in front of it got alarmed at 1 p.m., to-day, and the Head Master put lock on the main gate at 1 p.m. lest the lads from the Matriculation to the Infant class should suddenly non-co-operate! It is rumoured that all loyal schools will lock their gates from tomorrow (which is bound to be a critical day) from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Even school lads who are not to Non-Co-operation are affected, and a batch, mere youngsters, proposed to jump from the upper storey down on the pavement, when locked in. It is generally believed by every "seer" in this city that critical times are ahead, and food stuff has suddenly risen in price.

The very worm turns!

It is widely rumoured that on and from 1st March, coolies will be known as Sebaks and will no longer carry loads on the head in Calcutta, but will shoulder the same or carry the same on back as in foreign countries. The word cooly is in low esteem in Bengal now just as "Babu" is owing to European attitude. It has suddenly entered into the heads of coolies in Bengal that to carry load on the head is a sign of slavery, and they will omit it as spontaneously as the China men in Calcutta cut their pig tails in one single day.

LATER:

It is generally assumed that those college students who were inside the building were not attending lectures. But were conversing with professors regarding national colleges. They were as much Non-Co-operationists as those on the maidan or streets. Hence it can be safely asserted that all are out, except some boys of the Presidency college.

Mahatma Gandhi's photo was carried in procession yesterday by graduates, who sang as they passed that they won't attend the forthcoming Convocation at which Lord Chelmsford is to preside because in his reign students of the Punjab were treated like beasts.

STILL LATER.

The Presidency College.

The authorities and Anglo-Indians won't acknowledge that the Presidency College is tottering like a drunkard upon the balcony. How long will lock and key encase the Bengali youth within masonry? Hence the college authorities and professors say. "We give you one week's holiday!" Holiday for what? This very holiday is nothing but Non-Co-operation, which affects the mind of every students to-day, if not their actions. If there be any doubt it will be cleared today, and I shall modify my opinion accordingly in the next letter. Today I find no reason to retract what I have written above, in order of sequence, just as I heard and gathered from various sources. A presidency Student interviewed by me said that arts students are more prone to Non-Co-operation than science students, and that a lot of first year boys left their classes yesterday and to-day. At any rate the very fact of an untimely grant of vacation makes the situation clear as day light.

Outside Calcutta.

News from the colleges outside Calcutta is also like the news obtained from Calcutta colleges. The speakers at mass meetings as sure boys that as they had been cheated in the past by leaders they are likely to be cheated this time too in Bengal. So instead of following any particular speech they must act according to their own conscience and judge whether the educational system as followed heretofore was beneficial or not, whether only a small minority rose to eminence like Lord Sinha, Basu, etc. The Bengalis of Calcutta call this movement more Swadeshi than Non-Co-operation! This is probably due to a desire for originality, as Non-Co-operation hails from other Provinces!! But during a plague epidemic all deaths are due to plague and I cannot deny the fact that it is Gandhi Maharaj who has overpowered the Bengalis at last.

GOVERNOR GENERAL OF PORTUGUESE INDIA.

His Excellency Sir Jaime Morais, Governor-General of Portuguese India, arrived at Victoria Terminus by the Poona Mail at 11-30 a.m. yesterday. Messrs. Antonio P. J. Fernandes, Ag. Consul-General for Portugal, Mangesh R. Bastodkar and V. S. Borkar, President and Secretary respectively of the Goan Hindu Association, Dr. W. F. Pais, President of the Goan Union, Capt. Alban D'Souza Dr. T. F. Coutinho, Dr. M. A. D'Heredia, Messrs. Salazar and Athayde, and several other gentlemen were present at the platform to receive his Excellency. After the gentlemen were duly introduced to his Excellency by the Portuguese Consul he was garlanded by the Presidents of the Goan Hindu Association and the Goan Union. His Excellency after shaking hands with all present left for the Taj Mahal Hotel.

COAL TRADE AND WAGON ALLOTMENT.

DISCUSSION AT A CONFERENCE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Jan. 18.

On the 14th instant, the Chairman and some members of the Committee of the Indian Mining Federation had a conference with the Hon. Mr. C. I. Innes, Secretary to the Government of India, and Mr. A. M. Clark, Member, Railway Board, in which the question of wagon allotment under special supply and how it seriously affects the interest of the coal trade, was discussed. Mr. Innes put the Chairman and Committee members of the Federation a question as to whether in case Government agreed to withdraw a special supply, it would not be better to withdraw it in July next than now, as now, wagons in larger numbers would be taken up for movements of other commodities, and in July more wagons would be available for coal. Whereupon he was told that the question could not be answered without referring to the general members of the Federation and obtaining their views on the subject.

PREFERENCE TO BE WITHDRAWN.

A general meeting of the Indian Mining Federation was held to-day to consider the above suggestion of Mr. Innes. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—That all systems of preferential supply of coal, except for purposes of Government, loco and public utility, including light railways, shipment to Indian ports and inland navigations, be withdrawn, and wagons available for despatch of coal distributed to collieries on the pro rata basis determined on raisings and stocks, and for the purpose of equalisation the excess quantity despatched under special supply in a quarter be deducted from the raisings of the colliery for fixing its basis for the next quarter. That the members of the Indian Mining Federation assembled in a general meeting resolve that in view of the fact that the present system of preferential supply of wogans under different classification is seriously affecting the interest of the coal trade, they shall sell their coal on condition that its despatch must be made by wagons to the colliery concerned on the pro rata basis determined according to raisings and stocks, and under any classification of special supply, except for purposes of Government, loco and public utility. It is further resolved that the above resolution should be given immediate effect.

RAILWAY COMMITTEE.

MAINTENANCE OF ROLLING STOCK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, Jan. 18.

In the afternoon sitting of the Railway Committee, Mr. Moir, Labour Commissioner, formerly Director of Civil Supplies, was examined. The witness spoke about the complaints he had received from native merchants about corruption in subordinate establishments of railway. He also referred to the complaints with regard to the shortage of supply of waggons from merchants. The witness wanted the maintenance of rolling stock be kept up to meet an additional call during the harvesting season.

MR. DAS GIVES UP PRACTICE FOR EVER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Jan. 19.

Mr. C. R. Das announced that he had given up his practice for ever, if he was not released from the Dumraon Raj Case and the Munition Board Case, which he had already accepted. The entire sum he got, would be devoted to the national work.

MR. GANDHI'S MASSAGE TO STUDENTS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Jan. 19.

Mr. Gandhi has sent a telegram from Bombay reminding the students to strictly follow the principle of non-violence. Mr. Gandhi will reach Calcutta on Sunday next.

A NOAKHALI SENSATION.

PLEADERS REFUSED LICENSE TO PRACTISE.

The Noakhali correspondent of the "Servant" writes under date January 9:

Indignation prevails amongst the members of the local Bar Association in consequence of the refusal of the District Judge to grant renewal of license to practise to about 33 practising pleaders of the District Bar, including some pleaders of over 18 years standing, with effect from the current year. It appears that the pleaders, following the usual pratice deposited the necessary fees for the renewal of their license before the X'mas holidays, But the District Judge, has in refusing renewal to 33 of he pleaders asked them to furnish certificates from the Judicial officers before whom they practise. The Secretary of the Bar Association has, it is understood informed the Judge that as pleaders of the District Court, they are not required to furnish any such certificate. Correspondence is going on between the District Judge and the Bar Association and the matter is still pending.

JIMMY WILDE TELLS WHAT TO DO FOR FOOT TORTURES.

World's Champion Boxer says simply rest feet in saltrated water, then bid corns and other foot troubles good-bye for ever.

Jimmy Wilde

I am often asked what boxers do when their feet ache, burn, perspire, form corns, callouses, bunions, and otherwise make life miserable for anyone who has to be on his feet constantly. Boxers have to do what everyone else should do, that is, rest the feet for a while in medicated and oxygenated water, prepared by dissolving a handful of refined Reudel bath saltrates (obtainable at small cost from any chemist) in a foot bath of plain hot water. I have known of serious cases where users hardly recognised either the feell or the appearance of their own feet the first time they treated them in this way, and I am never without a supply of he saltrates compound at my training camp.

Pranjivandas Nathubhai

vs.

Vrijlal Nathubhai and ten others.

Before the Chief Justice Sir Norman. Macleod and Sir Lallubhai Shah.

This was an appeal against the decision of Mr. G. M. Pandit, Additional First Class Subordinate Judge of Ahmedabad, who dismissed the suit with costs.

The facts are briefly these:—

This was a suit by the plaintiff Pranjiwan principally against his two younger brothers, Vrijlal and Chimanlal for a portion of the property left by their deceased father Nathubhai Nanabhai. That Nathubhai, the father of the plaintiff and Defendants died on 21st February 1910; that he was a member of an undivided Hindu family cosisting of himself and his brother, Bhuder, and father Nanabhai, that he had got moveable and immoveable properties as his share of the joint family. That with the half of this property he had considerably augmented his fortune; that he had thrown his earnings as a Government servant into the common stock; that therefore all the property possessed by him was joint of him and his sons. That he had no power or authority to dispose of the same in a way prejudicial to any of his sons and grand sons with their consent That notwithstanding his incompetence defendants 1 to 6 were said to have got him to make two wills in their favour one relating to property in Ahmedabad and the other of property in Jathiawar. That the said wills were invalid according to Hindu Law and were fraudulent and were made by the father in collusion with defendants 1 to 6 with a view to deprive him of his legal share in the property. That the defendants Nos. 1 to 6 were asked to give his share; that they promised to comply with his demand but subsequently they effected a partition between themselves of all the joint properties to the exclusion of the plaintiff and hence the suit.

Defendants by their written statements replied that the properties owned and possessed by his father Nathubhai were his self-acquisitions, that Nathubhai had not got any cash or any moveable or immoveable property from his father Nansa. That it was not true that said Nathubhai acquired any properties with the aid of any ancestral or joint property or that he blended his own earnings with it. That Nathubhai had the absolute power to dispose of his self-acquired properties in any way he liked. That he had made both the wills, with regard to his properties at Ahmedabad and Wadhwan, of his own free will and without any pressure from defendants 1 to 6. That the plaintiff is not entitled to any relief and his claim should be dismissed with costs.

JUDGMENT.

The Chief Justice in delivering the judgment observed:—"The plaintiff is the son of one Nathubhai Nansa who died in February 1910 leaving certain property at Ahmedabad which he directed by his will dated to 30th March 1904 to be divided between his sons Vrijlal and Chimanlal and two of his grandsons, children of his son Pranjiwan to whom he left nothing. After Nathu died negotiations went on between the three brothers for the distribution of the property according to the terms of the will, and it must be conceded by the plaintiff that the ornaments were divided according to the directions of Nathu's will, Pranjiwan's two sons, defendants 11 and 12 getting their shares and receipts being passed attested by the plaintiff. It is also found and it cannot be disputed that the immoveable properties in Ahmedabad have been taken possession of by the devisus in accordance with the directions of the will, although one of the houses, which was to go to defendants 11 and 12 is still in the possession of one of the other sons of Nathu as a tenant. The plaintiff, five years after Nathu's death, filed this suit to set asides all the provisions of the will on the ground that the property was joint ancestral property and that therefore, Nathu had no power to dispose of it by will. The learned judge in the court below held on the evidence that with the exception of house No. 2706, the whole of Nathu's property was his self-acquired property. In the first instance, although he found the house No. 2706 was ancestral property he directed that the provisions of the will should be given effect to in toto But when that mistake was pointed out to him, he dealt with the issue whether the plaintiff was not estopped by conduct from disputing the will. That would only be with regard to the disposition of the ancestral house. The Judge then considered the evidence with regard to what took place after Nathu's death between the three sons, and it is perfectly clear that Pranjivan was negotiating on behalf of defendanti 11 and 12 with regard to the distribution of Nathu's estate according to the will. It is also clear that defendant 11 and 12 had got all the advantages which they were given by Nathu's will, and had obtained those advantages so far back as 1912. It is obvious, therefore, that the plaintiff has elected to abide by the will owing to the advantages which his sons have obtained under it. It cannot be disputed that as a matter of fact Nathu divided his property practically equally into three parts and that defendants 11 and 12 have got in effect on equal third share of Nathu's estate Nathu also left property at Wadwan. With regard to that he made a separate will. PLAINTIFF'S INTENTIONS.

Really the plaintiff has filed this suit in the Ahmedabad court in order to obtain a declaration that Nathu's will with regard to the Ahmedabad property was invalid and to use the decree, if it was in his favour, as a lever to upset the will with regard to the Wadhwan property. Admittedly if the plaintiff got a decree in this suit the only effect would be that the property which is at present in the hands of the defendants 11 and 12, his sons, would go to Pranjiwan as ancestral property to be shared with his three sons. But the plaintiff seems to have anticipated difficulties when he filed a suit in Wadwan for partition of the Wadwan property on the ground that Nathu's will with regard to the Wadhwan property was invalid. Therefore it appears the only object the plaintiff has in filing this suit is to obtain a more favourable position with regard to his brothers in the event of his filing a suit in the Wadhwan Court to obtain partition of that property. That is a consideration which can have no weight with us in regard to this suit in which we think clearly the plaintiff is barred from attempting to dispute the validity of the Ahmedabad will, on the ground that for 5 years he has proceeded under it as if it was valid. The appeal must, therefore, be dismissed with costs one set of costs only in favour of Respondents 1 to 8. The defendants 10 and 11 to pay their own costs'"

Justice Shah:—"I agree I am quite satisfied that the plaintiff is estopped from disputing the validity of Nathubhai's will, relating to the property at Ahmedabad with which alone we are concerned in this suit. We are not in any way concerned with the property at Wadhwan, nor with the validity of the will relating to that property. In dismissing this appeal I express no opinion whatever as to the validity of the will relating to the property at Wadhwan."

IF YOU SUFFER AFTER EATING.

take two or three tablets of Bisurated Magnesia with a sip of water. This quickly, surely and safely neutralises the harmful acid, stops the food fermentation, and gives your stomach a chance to proceed with its work in a painless, normal manner. Thousands of people know from their own experience that Bisurated Magnesia is the only thing that helps them—that it's the only thing that enables them to eat hearty meals of the good things they like without worrying about after-effects. Bisurated Magnesia is obtainable at all chemists, in both powder and tablet form, and if taken as directed will rid sufferers from all trace of digestive pain and enable them to eat hearty meals of the things they like without fear of consequent discomfort. But it must be Bisurated Magnesia: look for the makers' name, BISMAG LIMITED, which appears on every bottle, and then you will have the genuine—the kind that does you good.

Smooth, creamy sauces.

By his sauce you will recognise a good cook. It will be rich, smooth, and creamy, and just sufficiently seasoned to add piquancy to the dish without overpowering its flavour.

To get these results, your cook will thicken them with

Brown & Polson's Patent Corn Flour

instead of ordinary flour or artificial thickenings.

1920 welcomes 1837

First introduced in 1837, LUCE'S Eau-de-Cologne is still held in the highest favour by both ladies and gentlemen.

Its delicate fragrance and delightfully refreshing qualities make it invaluable for use on the handkerchief or hands, in the bath room or sick room, at the theatre, when visiting or travelling.

Her Beauty Secret

BY gently massaging her skin with Ven-Yusa Cream, the modern lady of refinement is able to give it a beautifying oxygen bath. This improves and preserves its texture, clearness, and flexibility.

Ven-Yusa creates beauty that is more than skin deep, and it gives real protection against the heat and dust of our Indian climate.

To acquire a youthful complexion charming in its freshness and bloom, use Ven-Yusa daily.

Re. 1. per jar from all Chemists, etc. By post from Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., 9, Dalhousie Sq., CALCUTTA.

The Oxygen Cream

An invaluable remedy for

RHEUMATISM

Sciatica, Sprains, Sore Throat, etc.

For the first twinges of Rheumatism, just settling in joint or muscle—for the first sharp shooting pain down the Sciatic Nerve of your thigh or across your back—as well as for those old tortures which you have suffered for years—there's nothing like Sloan's Liniment for quick relief—just a few drops laid on the affected part will quickly draw out the pain.

NO RUBBING REQUIRED.

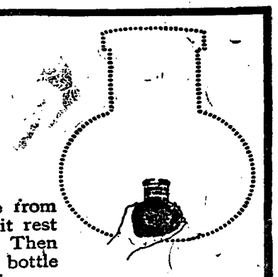
Mr. J. Dinsdale, 47 Eldon Street, North Road, Darlington, writes: "Having been a great sufferer from Rheumatism, I was advised to try Sloan's Liniment. The first bottle did me a great deal of good. It has done me more good than any other so-called cures."

Sold by all chemists and bazaars.

Representatives for India:—MULLER & PHIPPS (India), Ltd., 14-18 Green St., Bombay: 21 Old Court House St., Calcutta; and Branches.

Sloan's Liniment
"KILLS PAIN"

Take this Power in your hand



Pick up any Bovril bottle from the store counter, and let it rest on the palm of your hand. Then picture to yourself another bottle ten to twenty times as big.

That larger bottle would correspond to the proven Body-building Power of the Bovril actually in your hand.

The India Provident Co., Ld

Head Office—29, Grey Street, CALCUTTA.

An Appreciation.

"I am highly pleased to say that the dia Provident Company surpasses all the existing companies in setting claims. I received payment within an hour after submitting the 'Intimation,' which was quite an extra-ordinary affair I experienced after a period of half a n of years spent in assurance business."

BASIK LAL BANNERJEE, 118-3 Tollygunge Road, CALCUTTA.

Opinions of the Day.

Education May Wait: Swaraj Cannot.

The "A. B. Patrika".—Education may wait but Swaraj cannot. If we fail to win it before the year is out, then humanly speaking, the country will be driven to the very verge of a frightful revolution. If the students hold out for a few weeks, we have no doubt in our mind that British statesmanship, however on the brink of bankruptcy it may seem to be just now, will not fail to pull up and save the situation by offering a real and permanent reconciliation between India's legitimate right to independent, political existence and the reasonable requirements of the unity and integrity of the present British Empire. We hope our youngmen realise the great and far-reaching issues they are fighting for. If they can hold out they will not only secure freedom for their country by absolutely peaceful means, but will also help to safeguard the peace of Asia if not of the whole world in the near future.

The Conscience Clause.

The "Tribune".—So far as the students themselves are concerned, there, is, of course, no logical incompatibility between their being asked to leave their Colleges irrespective of the conscience clause in the Congress resolution, and their actually arriving at their decision after questioning their conscience individualy. But in practice when large numbers of students simultaneously make up their mind to take a particular course in response to daily and hourly appeals made to them, it is not unreasonable to assume that their decision is more the outcome of their desire to follow the leaders than the result of individual interrogation of conscience. If this assumption is correct, it is to be hoped that those who have been leading the students in this matter have taken special care to make clear to them the distinction between what the Congress has sanctioned and what they are themselves, asking the students to do.

A "Harrowing Story."

The "Searchlight".—The whole story is harrowing and needs to be promtply looked into. Indian lives count cheap, we know, but even this cheapness ought not go beyond a certain limit. While in other countries, popular crowds are treated with a certain amount of consideration and are not fired on unless it becomes absolutely essential, that is, unless all other efforts have been exhausted, in India on the other hand, the least popular distempor throws the authorities into hysterics and they must needs jump to the gun. This habit has been allowed to prevail scandalously long and we fuly endorse the suggestion that the whole chain of incidents requires a shifting enquiry—an enquiry, we might add, which does not partake the character of a white-washing.

Sir Surendranath.

The "I. D. News".—They are recalling how Mr. Gokhale declined a similar honour—and recalling to Sir Surendranath's only views and are quite amused at the transformation of the "Tribune of the people", of the "Surrender Not" of old, of the leader of the anti-Partition and Swadeshi movements, of the unmpromising opponent of the Bureaucracy and of the hero of a hundred platforms, into a full-fledged Knight under the "Reform" regime. But he is not all to blame. It is his title to his become. It has come very late in the magic touch of the Reforms that has worked such a miracle. Apparently he feels the awkwardeness of his position and he took his staff who bade him farewell on Saturday into his confidence and told them it was the "unsolicited" gift of the Sovereign which he could not decline. Very right. He cannot repeat Rabindranath's mistake but will hug his title to his bosom. It has come very late in life and he will dote on it. And the world must not cap or cavil. Gladstone preferred to remain simple Mr. Gladstone; Lloyd George has up to now done likewise. But what of that! Let his critics say what they like, he is determinded to be called Sir Surendranath Banerjea the rest of his life instead of "Suren Baroorjya" of the early democratic days. This is the great Reform idea. However he has our congratulations, whatever his detefactors may say.

Failure From Every Point.

The "Prajamitra and Parsee".—Judged by the common, human standards of political efficiency, we are afraid Lord Chelmsford's administration must be decleared to have been a failure from every standpoint. From the Indian standpoint it has been a failure; it hardly ever promised to be a success. But it has been a still greater and more complete failure from the British standpoint. He found a loyal and contented India, he will leave to his successor a discontented and dangerously disaffected community. British prestige has suffered a great shock, both internally and in relation to Afghanistan. Lord Chelmsford, no doubt has also, in some degree to suffer for the sins of his superiors as in the matter of the Khilafat. But a stronger man would have, even there, either successfully urged his views upon the Cabinet, or else, resigned. For the sins of his subordinates, he is rightly and unquestionably responsible. He could not control Mr. Lloyd George, and he would not control Sir Michael O'Dwyer He acted and interfered when he need not have, and has remained quiescent when the situation has demanded action. Owing to these sins of commission and omission, the country has been seething with sedition and discontent, in spite of a most substantial measure of practical reforms.

SHE—"Don't Worry Herbert—The Three—point suspension Springs will Save me and the car when we land!"

BEFORE—AFTER

How one man lost his worried look.

MANY a man feels worried without quite realising the cause. His world is a dull, dim and grey one, and he is always straining to see. That's how the lines and wrinkles come. Good glasses, which "clear up everything" are like coming out of mist into sunshine to any such person, and the ease they bring is soon reflected in a happier expression. But you can't get the best out of glasses without highly skilled optical service.
